

Illinois League of Conservation Voters

Internship Opportunity:

Are you interested in learning every facet of political campaigns and elections? Are you interested in electing progressive candidates who will protect our environment? The League of Conservation Voters is an organization committed to running a year-round grassroots political operation to promote progressive candidates who will protect our environment. The League has openings for interns interested in the following duties:

1. Data Management, microtargeting
2. Grassroots field organizing
3. Fundraising
4. Press/Communications
5. Internet organizing
6. Event Advance

Please submit cover letter and resume.

Time Requirement: 10-20 hours a week
Schedule: Flexible
Class Credit: Available upon approval from your university
Payment: None
Contact: Amanda Espitia
312.731.6108
Aespitia@lcvillinois.org