

October 7, 2006

Endorsements not made

Another interesting political endorsement, notably for what it doesn't say:

The Illinois League of Conservation Voters sent out its picks for the fall election. Endorsements were based on voting record and answers to a questionnaire. It picked incumbent Democrat Debbie Halvorson in the 40th State Senate seat race. In the 75th State Rep. race, the group picked Republican challenger Jason Briscoe over incumbent Democrat Careen Gordon.

In the 79th District, where Republican challenger Sam Nicholos faces incumbent Democrat Lisa Dugan, neither candidate was picked.